

CENTRAL NEW MEXICO
COMMUNITY COLLEGE LIBRARIES
INVITES YOU TO OUR ANNUAL

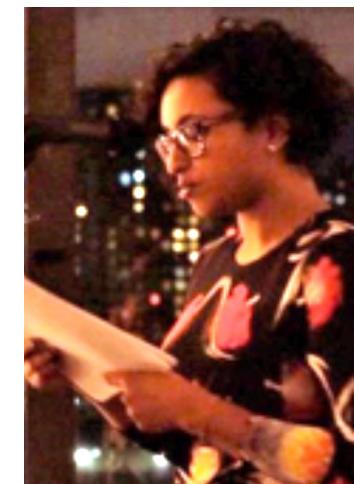

2018 AUTHOR EVENT
AND LEONARDO
LAUNCH PARTY

FEATURING POET:
TARFIA FAIZULLAH

THE ANNUAL CNM AUTHOR'S EVENT
CELEBRATES AND ENCOURAGES CREATIVE WRITING. THIS YEAR'S EVENT PAIRS THE LAUNCH PARTY FOR THE 2018 EDITION OF
THE CNM LITERARY MAGAZINE LEONARDO.
THE EVENT OPENS WITH AN AWARDS
CEREMONY FOR CNM STUDENT AUTHORS.

Poet Tarfia Faizullah, raised in the Southwest (Texas), explores her Bangladeshi-American roots, themes of violence, and the ways in which art can wrestle with questions of human suffering, atrocity, and memory. Her visit provides an opportunity to interact with a writer whose work touches on issues of concern to our community, including giving voice to the unheard; the role of art in recording and dealing with violence, discrimination, and trauma; and the ways in which memory, family, and heritage interact in making art. She brings a perspective that may enlarge the experience and potential power and scope of art and writing to transform experience and change lives.

THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 2018

6:00 – 8:00 P.M.

JEANNETTE STROMBERG LIBRARY

CNM MAIN CAMPUS, SRC

THE EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

SUBJECTGUIDES.CNM.EDU/EVENTS/AUTHORS