

Donations of Materials

The CNM Libraries welcome donations of materials and accept them with the understanding that items will be evaluated according to standards listed in the Collection Development Policy.

Donations which are not suited to the Libraries' collections, will be made available to the CNM community. The Libraries reserve the right to refuse a donation for any reason.

All gifts are acknowledged by the Libraries; however, no monetary evaluation will be provided, pursuant to Internal Revenue Service regulations.